'BEAR' RAID FAILS ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

Market Dull. With President Wilson's Note to Great Britain Chief Factor.

Great Britain in connection with its commerce carried stocks down slightly during the first hour.

A rallying tendency asserted itself, their raid on the market was not being forced to cover.

The market then became very dull and such trading as was indulged in was extremely narrow, very few issues being dealt in. The chief topic among the brokern is the American note to Great Britain, and the general opinion expressed is that the result will be more liberal treatment of American shipping.
